

Contents

SAMUDRA No. 12 APRIL 1995 TRIANNUAL REPORT OF ICSF

<input type="checkbox"/>	COMMENT	1
<hr/>
<input type="checkbox"/>	MADAGASCAR Scars of labour	3
<hr/>
<input type="checkbox"/>	MEXICO No women, no sustainable fisheries	8
<hr/>
<input type="checkbox"/>	AQUACULTURE Up in arms	10
<hr/>
<input type="checkbox"/>	INITIATIVE A damn fine effort	12
<hr/>
<input type="checkbox"/>	NETWORKING Before the beer, some sober thinking	17
<hr/>
<input type="checkbox"/>	NORWAY No way to transfer fish quotas	19
<hr/>
<input type="checkbox"/>	INDIA Bad custodian of the sea	21
<hr/>
<input type="checkbox"/>	FOCUS The poor, lonely, homely turbot	27
<hr/>
<input type="checkbox"/>	FOCUS The beginning of the end	31
<hr/>
<input type="checkbox"/>	FOCUS Beyond quotas and mesh size	34
<hr/>
<input type="checkbox"/>	FOCUS Flying the Canadian flag	37
<hr/>
<input type="checkbox"/>	FOCUS The fish need peace	40
<hr/>
<input type="checkbox"/>	OPINION Shame!	43
<hr/>
<input type="checkbox"/>	RESPONSE Liberal economics not the answer	44
<hr/>
<input type="checkbox"/>	WOMEN A long way to go	45
<hr/>
<input type="checkbox"/>	ANALYSIS Whose seas? Whose freedom?	46
<hr/>
<input type="checkbox"/>	DOCUMENT The NGO statement	50
<hr/>
<input type="checkbox"/>	VIEWPOINT The First Worlds' big bluff	52
<hr/>
<input type="checkbox"/>	NEWS ROUND-UP Vietnam, Thailand, India, US, Tanzania, Lebanon	54
<hr/>		